

600x800

The new and hottest free weekly online magazine for America's new generation of black conservative leaders.

Guided by the best black American thinkers like A.R. Bernard, Dr. Ben Carson, Thomas Sowell, Armstrong Williams and Mia Love, American Current-See is chocked full of robust dialogue on subjects like best way to seize the debate inside the black community from the liberals to embracing a new agenda of economic opportunity, moral leadership and freedom from suffocating government.

It's all free. No cost to you. Every word and thought in American Current-See is guaranteed to be as powerful as the next and you won't have to pay a penny. All brought to you by your friends at The Washington Times so just click here and get your free weekly subscription now.

American Current-See brings you insights that the Black American community has been deprived of during the Obama years and boldly addresses the left's wrongheaded entitlement dependency, reliance on big government and its intentional ignorance of the new civil rights crisis. It's easy to subscribe, just click here and we'll send you 52 weekly issues that cover topics like how our culture is impacting black families, the overregulation and overtaxing of small businesses and black-on-black crime – all with a clear and new perspective you'll quickly appreciate and crave more.