

X MARKS THE SPOT

New Hampshire will join 11 other states and the District of Columbia in providing a gender neutral designation, typically an X, on driver's licenses beginning Jan. 1.
The other states:

