

LEFT OF THE SENATE

Sen. Kamala D. Harris, the Democratic Party's presumptive vice presidential nominee, has spent 3½ years as the junior senator from California. She has amassed a hard-left record for voting and writing bills, though she has never introduced a bill that has been signed into law. Here is how major advocacy groups score her tenure:

